

WE are adamantly opposed to the use of cell phone on commercial airline flights except for possibly brief, say 15 minutes periods before the termination of the flight. Regarding violence on TV, yes, there is an great excess of violence shown and it should be regulated.